

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.

RYAN PATRICK

Vineyards

2010 ROCK ISLAND RED

Named after the first dam to span the Columbia River this is a blend of 58% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Malbec and 8% Syrah. Aromas of cherry and currants are complemented by hints of cocoa and blackberry. 18 months of French and American oak aging create depth and supple tannins.